

Ms. Patricia Ann Zacho Webb

August 7, 1964 - January 19, 2024

Patricia Ann Zacho Webb passed from this life on January 19, 2024, in Frisco, Texas. She was born August 7, 1964, in St. Paul, Minnesota to the late George Thomas and Ruth (Heinrichs) Zacho.

Patty was raised in Cannon Falls, Minnesota along with her two older siblings, the late Thomas Zacho and Christine Zacho. The family operated a gladiolus flower business and Patty's childhood was spent helping in the flower fields and assisting her father on his delivery route to many florists in the greater St. Paul/Minneapolis area. In junior and senior high school, she excelled in track and cross country along side her sister, Christine.

She left home early at the tender age of fifteen and moved West to join her sister, Christine, who was living in Los Angeles, California. After several entry level jobs, she soon found her life-long career as a legal secretary in a small law firm. Over the years, she has held numerous legal secretary positions, generally preferring small, independent firms.

In 1987, Patty became the auntie to her niece, Angeleena Zacho, who she loved as if she were her own.

In 1991 she met and later married her husband, James Wesley Smith Webb and they lived together in Burbank, California for several years before moving to Allen, Texas where they both lived out their lives. Patty and James had been together 26 years until he was taken by the Lord in 2018. James was a gifted vocalist and Patty enjoyed accompanying him on her piano.

In addition to her parents and grandparents, she was preceded in death by her brother Thomas Zacho.

Survivors include: her sister Christine Zacho, niece Angeleena Zacho and her husband Richard Badgett, nephew Jeremy Alaynick, and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.

“ I didn't have much time to spend with Aunt Patty, since she only became a part of my life only 7 years ago. But my fondest memory was when we were staying at my Mom's ranch over Thanksgiving a few years ago. We were both standing outside admiring the cloudy morning. It was lightly raining, but it was a thick rain, and I looked at Aunt Patty and said, "I think it's about to snow." Aunt Patty said, "No. It's not cold enough to snow." So we went back inside to get out of the rain. Well, a couple minutes later, as we're inside sitting by the fireplace, we stared out the window as it began to SNOW. That was a great day.

“ Even tho I didnt get the chance to spend lots of time with Patty, when she did visit Christine we had many laughs and I saw just how warm and witty she was.

She was someone you gravitated towards. She was truly interested in what you had to say...empathetic and sincere...definitely showed love for her sister and their bond....undeniable forever sister love 😊

It's now time to celebrate her life and to let her rest in the eternal life we all live for...forever 🌸🙏 Farewell Patty...until we meet again 😊

“Patty was a part of our family for 26 years. She and our brother James Webb were married in our living room in Burbank. When we learned of Patty’s death, we cannot describe the depth of sadness that flooded our hearts. We’re believing that James and Patty are now united in Heaven, and we will miss her here on earth as we have so deeply missed James since his home-going in 2018. May the spirit of God comfort Patty’s sister, Christine, and family in a magnificent way in knowing that as believers, it is not “goodbye” but farewell until we meet again when we as believers in Christ shall be together again at the feet of Jesus.
