Thanks, Paula. Heaven has another angle. I bought her a coffee mug once that said "it's difficult being a princess." She truly was my Princess.

“ Pat always had a smile on her face. She was always ready to share a meal, her time, or a kind word. I lived behind her and Haskell for years and was blessed to have them for landlords. They became so much more than that. My prayers go out to the family. I know where she is and I celebrate her 'homegoing' with her loved ones. I grieve with them as well...not for her but for our loss. Praying that the soon return of our Savior means our reunion with her will be sooner rather than later. God bless all of the Gossetts with the peace that only comes from Him. - Rob Durney (and family)
