as she placed them in their new dream homes. She even helped and managed real estate properties for various clients over the years. Patti was a “go getter,” had a strong work ethic, was admired and loved by many who met her. Patti was a successful businesswoman in the Henderson community who always conducted herself and business with honesty and integrity. Patti was a member of First Baptist Church in Henderson and enjoyed fellow-shiping with her ladies Agape Sunday School Class. Patti loved being with her special friend group “The Golden Girls” gang and going out to eat with them and socializing!

Patti is survived by: her daughter, Kerri Nichols and her husband Brian of Mt. Pleasant and her son, Brian Miller and his wife Meredith of Houston. Patti had 4 grandchildren whom she loved dearly, who called her “Gogi.”: Luke (20) and Bethani (17) Nichols of Mt. Pleasant, and Emma Grace (15) and Blake Miller (12) of Houston. Also, she is survived by her brother, Mike Bolton and His wife Valerie of Mexia; and numerous nieces and nephews and cousins.
