“ Kin, Angela, and family, We were shocked when we read your mom's obituary. We didn't realize she was battling cancer. May God bring you peace in the midst of the storm."He comforts us in all our troubles so that we can comfort others. When they are troubled, we will be able to give them the same comfort God has given us." (2 Cor. 1:4)

“ Kim and Nelwyn, I was saddened when i read the obituary in the paper. I had no idea Paula had been sick. I am so glad you two have each other to lean on because there is nothing like the unconditional love of a sister. I have such fond memories of all three of you. Each of you played a role in helping to raise Phillip. He loves you all so much and each of you helped in a different way. Paula really taught him something...lol; Nelwyn, you were so full of fun and made him happy; Kim...you loved him...were there for him when he needed you and he still has a note you wrote him that he still cherishes. I send you lots of love and I have you in my prayers. Hugs, Celeste

“ Paula was a wonderful, caring person. She touched many lives in her career. I taught with her at Henderson Middle School, and she taught my two daughters. She had high goals and expected the same from her students. May you find comfort with our Savior's love and prayers of friends and family. Love, Mary Delafield

“ Dear Nelwin, I bet you are having a hard time figuring out how you are going to live life without your sidekick!! I hope the peace that surpasses all understanding consumes you and your family as you know this separation is only temporary and you will be together soon. Praying for you and your family. Much Love, Christy Staneart

“ Kim , Nelwin & Family, I know how important sisters are, and I'm glad you've got each other for comfort. My first substituting job-- back in the '70s--was for Paula. She had everything in order, naturally. I think memories are what keep people alive in the hearts of friends and family, and I wanted to share this one with you. Gay
