

Mrs. Pauline Propes

July 31, 1923 - September 17, 2013

Graveside services will be held at 4 pm Thursday, September 19, 2013 for Pauline Elizabeth Coolidge Propes, 90, of White Oak, Texas, formerly of Henderson, Texas at Lakewood Memorial Park. Interment will follow under the direction of Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home. The family will receive friends prior to the service from 2:30-3:30 pm at Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home.

Pauline Propes went to her heavenly home on September 17, 2013 after a long battle with COPD and other health issues. She was born on July 31, 1923 in Cleburne, Texas to Sudie Dunn Coolidge and Edward Monroe Coolidge. She lived most of her life in her favorite town, Henderson, Texas. She was a retiree from General Telephone Company where she had worked for 25 years.

Pauline was an active charter member of South Main Church of Christ for many years and most recently was a member of Pine Tree Church of Christ. Pauline was a 60+ year member of Beta Sigma Phi and held many offices. Some of her dearest friends were her Sorority Sisters. A proud graduate of Henderson High School, class of 1941, she thoroughly enjoyed the "Club 41" meetings. She loved to sew and was well known for the clothes she made her two daughters as they were growing up. She also enjoyed crocheting and made many beautiful gifts for her family. An avid reader, she even listened to books on tape when her eyesight failed due to macular degeneration.

Left to cherish her memory are two daughters, Paula Jean Hale and husband, Jack of White Oak, TX and Pamela Ann Dean of Richardson. She was known as Gigi to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, Jarrett M. Hale and wife Cynthia of Rockwall, TX; Jeffrey T. Hale and wife Marsha, Casey, Kathryn, and Cody Jack Hale of Dallas; Justin P. Hale and wife Robin, Shaylee, Justin Cole and Jax Hale of Vidor; Olivia Hale of White Oak, and Jane Hale of East Mountain; and Mary Elizabeth Dean of Richardson. Also surviving her are sister, Mary Nelle Ashmore of Whitney, TX; a niece, Ameer Ashmore Edgar and husband Tommy; and a nephew, Dave Ashmore, all of Whitney, TX; great-nephew, Clint Edgar, and wife Stephanie of Austin, TX; and great-niece, April Ashmore Daily, and husband, Robert of Temple, TX.

The graveside service will be conducted by John Thompson of Holly Lake, for minister of South Main Church of Christ. Pallbearers will be Dave Ashmore, Tommy Edgar, Jack Hale, Jarrett Hale, Jeffrey Hale, and Justin Hale.

The family wishes to thank the nurses and aides who were so kind to her at Highland Pines Nursing and Rehabilitation Center and Southern Care Hospice. We will never forget the care they gave to Pauline.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Windridge Therapeutic Equestrian Center, PO Box 5932, Longview, TX 75608 or to the charity of your choice.

“ Pauline Propes and my mom, Billie Hooper, single moms, raised two sets of girls, me and Paula, then Beth and Pam, and did it fairly successfully with little help or agreement from us. I remember Pauline as sweet and funny, and always going to church. Taking us to basketball games, and letting us do ridiculous things in the middle of the night while I was spending the night. Like making German Chocolate cake icing and eating it, no cake, just icing. Things were different then. Our group would take off on bikes on Saturday morning, stopping into each others homes with no invite, to eat, drink, use the facilities. Everyone's mom was everyone's mom. I know that Mrs. Propes is peacefully playing with those pups she always had, and meeting friends and family and singing in heaven. I wonder if harps are playing?
Love, Paula Hooper Denmon
