

Mr. Payton St. Clair

February 21, 2000 - March 15, 2021

On Monday, March 15th 2021, Payton St. Clair, proud father and friend to everyone he met, passed away at 21yrs young.

Payton was born February 21, 2000, in Henderson and lived the majority of his life there. He graduated from Beckville High School in 2018 and later entered the Electrical Lineworker Program at TSTC in Marshall. He was currently working at Longhorn Steakhouse in Carthage and attended Pine Hill Baptist Church. He was also recently elected an honorary member of the Eastside Volunteer Fire Department.

Payton had a passion for people. He loved family & friend gatherings and always made sure he spoke to everyone. You never felt left out or alone in his presence. If you were family or considered his friend, you were important to him and you felt it. He had a kind heart, a gift given from his parents to the world. He taught us many lessons in life, none more though than to keep your eyes on him at all times. You see he loved to prank people. I believe it was his way to brighten your day, bring a smile to your face, and laughter to his ears. We will all remember his mischievous eyes, infectious smile, and memorable laughter. In honor of being blessed to have known Payton, may we all seek to bring more kindness, smiles, and laughter to this world.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Frank St. Clair, and George and Tommie Lee Nielsen; and great-grandparents, John David and Ruby Fay Young, and Juanita Allred and W.L. St. Clair.

Survivors include his father, Vance St. Clair and wife Angel of Henderson, and mother, Jennifer Harris and husband Keith of Tyler; grandparents, Barbara St. Clair of Henderson, Gary and Debbie Glenn of Tyler, and James and Tracy Smith of Ben Wheeler; great-grandmother, Ramona Bennett of Houston; daughter, Rosalie Ann St. Clair of Henderson; brothers, Gaige St. Clair and Ethan St. Clair of Henderson, and Braxton Warren of Tyler; sisters, Ella St. Clair and Kaylii Jones and husband Adam of Henderson, Darian Warren of Lindale, Sailor Warren of Lindale, and Ashton Warren; aunts and uncles, Shay and Shellie Wiggins and their children Seth and Sawyer, Danny and Angie McManus and their children Brenna and Brant, Buddy and Melloney St. Clair and their children Ian and Drake, Sheri and Mike Tillison and their children Shaun and Scottie, Michael Clark, Shaun Smith, Christi Glenn, and Dianne and Larry Sinclair; as well as a host of other family and many friends.

“ Me and Payton always messed with each other. All though he wasn't blood related he was considered related to me like a brother. When I went to his visitation all I remember is getting flashbacks after looking at him. I miss you Payton, fly high❤️

“ A year or two ago I was at the doctor's office and Payton was sitting in the waiting room. I noticed his jacket and asked if his name was Payton. He looked at me puzzled and said , “yes ma'am”. I asked if he lived in the old hotel. He again said with the same puzzled look , “yes ma'am”. I told him I was his music teacher in 3rd grade and my cousin used to own the old hotel and we were neighbors. We had a laugh about that because he couldn't believe I would remember him from only having him in third grade. He will definitely be missed!

“ My favorite memory of Payton is kind of a random one, honestly. I used to ride home with him after school on the weekends, and one of these many times his mom stopped to buy us drinks at the gas station. Of course, he got a diet and I got a Dr pepper. Well once we got on the road we were goofing around in the back seat and I accidentally took a big swig of his diet. I hadn't even opened my drink yet. I felt so bad, especially when I remembered he didn't like to drink after people. Then I offered him my drink without even thinking about the diet. He gave me crap for that for months! We still joked about it most times we talked up until graduation night. I got to a point where I'd randomly buy him a diet drink if I knew I was gonna see him. We may not have talked as much anymore, but I still loved Payton as a brother. I'll bring you a diet Dr. Pepper in heaven man. Love you.

“ Payton was always so sweet to me in one of my high school classes. He was always in a great mood and very respectful to everyone. One memory I do have is when his sister Kaylii, him and I were talking. Payton and Kaylii started arguing about how they loaded the dishwasher, Payton says the dishwasher is supposed to do the cleaning, so why should I? Kaylii responded “yes, but you still shouldn't put half a muffin in there.” I still to this day think of that story every time I see a dish not properly washed. I will be praying for Kaylii and the rest of Payton's family.
