“ Remembering my dearest cousin Peggy today, on what would have been her 73rd birthday. She was a loving and devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. I remember, like it was yesterday, all those summer years as children, when Peggy, my brother Bobby, and, I played for days at Ma Corley's and Pa Corley's home in Nacogdoches. And, going to spend time at Henderson. Peggy had the such a lovely smile (which was always present on that beautiful face of her's). And, the the most distinctive and beautiful laugh I have ever heard! You could never, ever be sad or blue around Peggy. I will always love you, sweetie 😊

“ Our hearts are broken, we lost a wonderful couple. Peggy was one of the most nice and kind hearted ladies I knew. At times she sat at our church table and we would talk. And she would have some of her grand-kids which she loved so much. God received a beautiful angel. Our love and prayer's to the family.

“ A bright light in this world is gone from our presence. Peggy seemed to find the 'funny' in everything. She was one of the best storytellers in this world, and when she shared her gift, soon everyone was in stitches! Suzanne had posted on Facebook that she didn't like 'in-law'. I, too, never thought of Peggy as an in-law. She was a much loved cousin. We will miss her and David so much.

“ Peggy and David both were the kind of neighbors that everyone would want. We lived beside them over 30 years. They were such a loving couple and would do anything for you. I just recently moved because of my husband's death and I know there's no way I could live there now without my friends next door. Jacy and Laura, my love to you both.

“ My heartfelt condolences to Peggy and David's Family. I met Peggy at the Henderson Hospital in ? 1993, when I was posted as a traveling Physical Therapist. She and her friend Carol befriended me and gave me a warm welcome, truly Texas style and made me so comfortable. She took me to high school Basketball games, to Peggy's Baptist Church, to her home.

I still remember her hospitality and her friendly spirit like it was yesterday. She had such a big heart and her care for everyone in the world personified her personality.
