Polly began her career as a music teacher in New London and would go on to teach in Tyler, Carrollton-Farmer's Branch from 1984-1995, and back to East Texas where she taught at Price-Carlisle until her retirement. Mrs. Tuttle was the church pianist for Minden Baptist Church before moving back to Carrollton in 2018 where she joined First Baptist Church at The Fields. Polly was a woman of strong faith, and her faith trumped everything else.

She was preceded in death by her father Ulysses Nation, mother Ruby Nation Brown, husband Donnie Ray "Don" Tuttle, and her brother Thomas Warren Nation.

Survivors include her children, Tracy Steitz and husband Bobby of Carrollton, and Todd Tuttle and wife Cicely of Colleyville; grandchildren, Jordon Anthony Tuttle and Justin Davis Tuttle of Colleyville; nieces and their families, Kathy Blackwell and Cheryl Gabel, both of Mustang, Oklahoma; and a host of Tuttle nieces and nephews as well as other family and many friends.

A celebration of life for Mrs. Tuttle will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, September 17, 2022 at First Baptist Church at The Fields in Carrollton with Dr. Brent Taylor officiating.

The family will receive friends from 12:00 p.m. until service time at the church.

“ Polly was my friend...she was my sister in Christ. Her gift of music touched my life in many ways...in the 70's I sang in The New Life Singers which Polly directed and accompanied. I appreciated her gift of music and how she wanted for us to be our best! Her celebration of life today was a beautiful service of recognizing her love for our Heavenly Father and the gift of music that she never took for granted! I will see you soon!
Your friend always,

“ Brokenhearted over this loss. I'm glad I had the opportunity to tell Mrs. Tuttle that I had started my teaching career as an elementary music teacher. I remember the sheer shock in her voice when I said it was because of her. I think of her so very often and the difference she made in my life as child and as a musician. I owe so much to her. Love you always, Mrs. Tuttle.

Miss Nation was my elementary music teacher at London Elementary, I thought the world of her. She was so pretty and sweet, she married and became Mrs. Tuttle during the school year. I've never forgotten her.
