“ *Know you're sad to lose your mother, and hope you're glad to have had her so long.
Story: (according to Fred). Said when he came to visit, she "held him hostage." Think she was a loving mom because like you, I also have several local siblings.*

“ She was a wonderful person and family to us. Our kids called her "Meemaw" - she loved her family and God and all she knew. She loved her gardens and plants. Favorite memories are of our children making her home-made mother's day cards and bringing her flowers. Visiting with her was always a treasure. She will be missed by all those that knew her. I don't think she ever got mad! We love her dearly, The Chevalliers.

“ Priscilla and Frank were always "fixtures" in my life. She knew no strangers, truly loved you if she knew you, and would do just about anything for you. She was one of my oldest friends from my Crim's Chapel youth. She always seemed to know what you had been doing. My father would have been proud to say she excelled at his favorite past-time, "community research". She befriended my Aunt Elizabeth always, especially through years when Aunt E was considered "eccentric". A CC light has moved on to scout out the news in Heaven. Mary Sue, Fred, Andy and Janet, she was greatly loved and you will miss her, but time will ease the loss and the memories will grow just that much sweeter.

I am so sorry about your Mother. I will always remember how she took the time to be a friend to my Aunt Elizabeth Martin. She was indeed a best friend to her. Please convey my sympathy to Andy, Fred, and Janet at this time.*

Thinking of all of you during this sad time. All of us in Tampa are so glad we had the delight of meeting her at Ben and Megan's wedding! We have grown to know her thru the heart-warming stories Ben has shared with us about her over the past few years. Love, Cathy and Bob Smith and family
