“ As a former member of this family, Randy and I have known each other for many years. I was always in awe of his God given talent for music. He was one on the most talented people I have ever known. I always felt very close to him and loved him very much. I will miss him even though I didn't see him very often for years. He will always be in my heart. David you are in my heart and thoughts as well as is the rest of the family. God bless you all. Love, Nitie

“ Dear LaNell and Family, My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I went to Pine Tree with Randy from about the 3rd grade until graduation. He was a great guy and I know he must have been a wonderful Christian husband and father. What a blessing! I hope you will treasure the precious memories you made together and look forward to seeing him again in our heavenly home. Love and prayers, Debbie

“ LaNell & Family, We are all born to walk a path of beginning and end. Yet in the realm of choicelessness surrounding our death we have comfort in the Presence of unconditional love. Randy gave us great joy being a part of our family. Randy's DASH will be an inspiration to us all. God Bless You All, Family and Friends of Windsor Cottage
