“ I had the pleasure of sharing the stage with Ray in Music and Drama (MAD) at Goddard 2 or 3 times, most notably 1983's Fall Dinner Theater show, "Anything Goes". Ray was funny, charming, down-to-earth, and so humble. He was always cutting up and cracking me up. And what a winning smile. I have thought of him many times over these years. Though I'm sad to see him pass, I am glad to see he had a long and full life.

“ Ray,
I miss you. I'll never forget the time you, Kenny and I went running. The family reunion you helped organize in Edwardsville. The encouragement you gave me as a kid to consider a diving scholarship to college. And, how much you look like me and my Dad. The genes are strong! I hope and know you are where you want to be for you led a good life. I hope to see you again some day to share a similar smile and twinkle in the eye together. Love you uncle Ray forever and ever and always. Your niece, Kristie (Hartenstein) Hess

“ Ray was truly an amazing man, that lived a full life. He impacted so many people in a positive way. I'll never forget seeing the news report on how the children of East Tx loved Ray reading them stories and donating hundreds of books. I am definitely a better person for having Ray as my stepdad and I've even taken up running 5k's, which I attribute to him. Rest In Peace Ray ❤️🙏
