“ Linda and family, I learned of your mother's homegoing this morning from Norma Jean Ritchey Crisp. I am so sorry for your loss, but, your loss is heaven's gain. I remember your mom with such fondness and always cringe at our breaking your bed while you all lived on Seale St. she had ask that we not sit on your bed...and we did stop...but, ventured back and broke your bed. I apologized to her years later. Memories...I do hope your memories will sweeten as time goes onward, and the Lord will give you peace with your great loss. Our love to your family. We will be praying for all of you.
