“ Our deepest sympathy to the family. Rita was such a sweet Christian lady. She was faithful in her church attendance until the end. That was such a tremendous example to the rest of us. May the family experience God's love, peace and comfort during this time. Ray & Sandra Hall

“ So very sorry to hear of your loss. I have lost touch with Rita over the years and was not expecting to see this today. Rita was such a sweet and loving person. My husband, Frank, knew her from her days as a waitress. I met her some years later but she is a special person whom I never did forget. She shared joys of her family and friends with us. At one time, she lived in an apartment at Villa Crest which happened to be the same one I had lived in a few years before. We have good memories of the time we did get to share with her,
Praying God's comfort to all her family and loved ones.

“ So Sorry For your Loss Jackie & Dennis.....I knew your Mom when I was working for Brookshire Bros. She would come there a lot always had something to say or talk about!
We also had a Friend in common, Ruth Katz, where they both lived at the same apartment complex by Brookshire Bros.
