“ Momma Robbin will always hold a special place in my heart. She was such an inspiration to me. If not for Robbin, Rex, and Shane picking me up for church and allowing me to be apart of their family for all those years Shane and I were together I would not be the Christian I am today! Robbin and the entire family have always meant so much to me. May you rest peacefully in the arms of Jesus and until we all join together again in Heaven...leave the light on for me! I will see you soon! Give Shane hugs for me! Love you Momma Robbin

Robbin was always like family, we always had some good conversations even after she was no longer family, she always was my sister in-law in my heart.

“ Robbin, we had some good times growing up together. We sat around Granny's house (mawmaw to you), many times listening to your mom (Aunt Opal), Aunt Mert, Uncle Shorty, and my dad (your Uncle Stafford), picking on those old guitars and playing those fiddles! Really great childhood memories I will always cherish. Rest in Peace cousin, in your heavenly home, no more earthly pain and no more worries!
