“ Mr. Beall was my grandpa, Alfred Allen's best friend and they were always planning their next fishing trip! Our family was so blessed to know him and his wife! They were a very special, sweet couple. My youngest son and I went to visit him in Palestine at the Cartmel Home after his stroke and he seemed to enjoy Macabe's violin playing, as he was singing along while Macabe played. Mr. Beall will be missed by all of us!

“ Bob will be missed. He was the sweetest man. Treated you just like family. My mother and Daddy were close friends. They spent lots of time and laughter together, the Bealls, Gibsons, Duncans and Watkins. It's hard to realize he is gone, but now with Catherine.
