“ *I personally consider Uncle Bob one of the finest people that I have ever known. Not only was he a devote Christian but a great businessman who would look you in the eye and shake your hand. I echo the words of my sister, Virginia. Aunt Mary and Bob were a great team for good in the world. Ray Martell Freeman, son of

“ I especially remember Bob when he was a car dealer. I have never been treated any nicer by a car dealer even up to the present. He did what he said he would do and never had to be reminded of what he told you when you bought a car from him. He seemed to always be glad to see you even after he went into other business venues. He stood among the few good men I have known in my life.

“ When I was pregnant with my first child and living with my grandmother Martha Hammond, Uncle Bob would come over a lot and play dominoes with me. I loved each and every moment with my Uncle Bob. He was a true and gentle soul. He was truly an amazing man. I love you Uncle Bob!!!!

“ I love & miss you Uncle Bob. My special memory was how thrilled you were when Steve & I took you & dad to an Aggie football game. You said it had been your dream to go. You told me the story how you lost your basketball scholarship to A&M & you would love to go to a game. Michael was attending A&M at the time & a member of the Corps of Cadets Company E-1. We went to the game & joined E-1's get together after the game. The smile on your face never left. I will see you & Aunt Mary again on day. Love & miss you!!

“ What an amazing man. I have known "Uncle Bob" all of my life and I am now eighty one, so we go back a long way. He was married to my Aunt Mary, my Dads youngest sister, for sixty something years. I never met anyone quite like him. He was capable of doing just about anything. I only recently learned that he was a graduate of A&M, where he played basketball. He told me he learned the motto "Make it happen" way back then. So I think he kept that philosophy and practiced it his entire life. (Whether it was selling cars or building houses, or whatever he chose to do.) He was always fun as well as optimistic. He will certainly be missed.

“ A special guy to me. At age 15, he financed a first car for me with a small down payment. He never doubted I would pay him. I did pay him. It made me feel important and trusted. I have never forgotten him doing what he did not have to do. Trust and confidence from an adult businessman inspired me.
