“ Watching the Video Memorial brought back so many memories of visiting each other when we were in grade school. Later we tried to solve all the problems of farming over noon hour in high school . The last couple of years we added cars and what school to go to after high school to our discussions. Then we graduated and were gone, pursuing our futures. Pretty soon we didn't get to see each other very often. Families were started and distances became greater. The times we saw each other became something to appreciate more and more, as we looked ahead and realized the time left is less and less. I am so glad I had the opportunity to visit Roger in Bowdle before he went back to Texas last September. Just like the many years prior, we tried to solve the world's problems and enjoyed each other's company. Now the time is over and I appreciate that visit so much more. Roger was a dear friend and through visits with him , I came to realize how important his family and Savior was to him. He is an example to us all. May Christ be our comfort. ----Dean

“ My condolences to Roger's family. Roger was a classmate and a friend. Although we last saw each other at the 2002 all-school reunion, we have always been friends. I have fond memories of not only our school days but many fun times of our early adulthood. Roger was a person who would do anything for a friend. He will be missed.

“ Eleanor, Ronnie, and family - Thinking about you and sending my prayers. It was wonderful to have lunch with you last week, Eleanor, and talk about Roger and how he lost his German accent and acquired a Texas drawl. May God be with all of you.
