“ Dear Gill Family, My thoughts and prayers are with you during this time. I know Ronnie is in a better place and feeling wonderful, but he will be greatly missed. God's timing is not to be questioned and His strength and love never waiver so lean not on you're own understanding during this time, but on God. God Bless you all.

“ Paula, We wish we could have been there today. We wish it so much, but we just couldn't make that long drive. But that doesn't mean we didn't care. In the days ahead, anytime you feel like you want to talk to someone, my ph# is 830-796-4212. Please feel free to call. I always loved your mama - she was one of my Daingerfield GA's - these little girls were almost like mine own. I wish you could have known your mother when she was a little girl. You would have loved being her friend. Getting to be their GA Counselor was a gift straight out of Heaven, the only thing missing was the big red bow on top of their heads. So I would delight in listening to you just talk - sometimes it's good to just pour out how you're feeling. I know - I've been on both ends of this - the talker and the listener. I wish I could have known Ronnie. I will someday, up in Heaven. My prayers are with you, Paula, Your mother's "Grape Juice" (pat welch)

“ Ronnie was such a wonderful person and friend to me and my family. When my husband, David, passed away, he was there for me and my family through several incidences. I will never forget him and now I know that he and David are having a good time with the Lord. David had cut his hair since he was 13 or 14 yrs. old and always considered him as one of his best friends. We were all blessed by knowing him. Ronnie gave the most touching eulogy at David's funeral and I appreciated him so much. I will never forget him!

“ Dear Aunt Ruby, Dale, Danny, Donnie & families Though our lives have taken all of us in different directions; you have all remained family to me. My memories are mostly of times spent with Dale, but based on what I've heard and the postings that are on this website.....Ronnie was a very special son, brother, husband, dad, cousin and friend to all who knew him. My heart breaks feeling the sadness you are feeling today; but when I remember mom's passing after her battle with cancer; like our family, I'm sure you all thank God knowing the pain and suffering Ronnie went through is now over, and he's seeing our Savior face to face....no pain, no tears, no sadness. Yes, they are and will forever be missed by all of us, and only the passing of time and wonderful memories help us to get through the pain in our hearts today. Aunt Ruby.....being a mother, I can't even begin to imagine losing a child, so I can't tell you from any experience I've ever had that it will be okay....but I can tell you I know Jesus, and He said He'll never put more on us than we can bare.....And I can tell you HE will still be there to hold you in his arms and comfort you during this time. I'm so sorry I won't be able to be there with you all to celebrate Ronnie's home going; but please know my thoughts and prayers will be. My love to all of you. Sheila

“ Sweet Sue (Paula) Ronnie sure loved his girl. You were such a good wife to him and his best friend. I can hear him now... Sue sit down here and play a little cash cab with me! He always won I don't care what the question was. I know that in my life, I have never seen a woman love and care for a man like you did Ronnie. What a beautiful thing for your children to see the love that you two shared. Ronnie will truly be missed by many but none like you. I hope that people know how lucky Ronnie was to have you in his life to love and stand beside him in his darkest hour. You are precious to me and to my kids and I feel blessed beyond words to call you my sister---my friend. This will be a mountain to climb for you to learn to live without him but I am living proof that life goes on. I am here for you always as you have been for me. Your the best! Love you Sharon

“ Dear Gill Family, We have become close over the last few months and I will forever cherish the times that we spent together. I am deeply sorry for your loss. Ronnie was one of a kind and John and I will never forget him. Paula, my sweet friend, I know that Ronnie was the true love of your life. He adored you and you were a wonderful wife until the very end. I witnessed the selfless, unwavering love that you showed him. You are a wonderful woman and I am so blessed to have been a part of yours and Ronnie's life together.
