Growing up your neighbors always make an impression on you and you always hope for good ones. I grew up with Butch as a neighbor and he was more then that, he was a family friend. Everytime I would be outside, or even in the recent years visiting the parents Butch would stop by and chat for awhile. Always wanting to know how things were going and always caring. I am going to miss those conversations everytime I go by mom and dads. I am sorry for your lose Belinda and Cody. Butch will surely be missed.

“ It seems just yesterday on that old oil top road that Butchy (grandma called him that) would ease across and brush hog the pasture for grandma. The family always knew if we were not close enough then Butchy and Belinda were just a drive up and always on the look out. I was thankful to be a part of Bar None the day he was baptized and so grateful to serve along side Belinda. He always waited patiently for her at meetings as she served where God had called. The old oil top won't be the same. My prayers are with his family.

“ Heaven has gained a hardworking, funny and all around great man when God called Butch to his Heavenly, eternal home. My heart is heavy with the thought of never hearing one of Butch's witty comments, and the void his passing will leave for his family. Prayers for peace and comfort for Belinda and Cody and family during this time of sadness now and in the days to come. We will all rejoice again one day when we meet Butch and Jesus at those Heavenly gates!
