Thank you, Yes Paula, it was special. We miss Rudy but we can remember all the good things. I remember you, Jeanie and your sister would ride bikes. I was younger and couldn't keep up on my little bike with y'all. You girls wouldn't ever leave me behind. Y'all would take turs pumping me behind each one of y'all. One time I stuck my toes in the spokes and you 3 were right by my side and took me and doctored me up. Love, Nickie Huddleston Peoples

“ I met Rudy through our mutual friend, Tony Davis. Rudy was Tony's best friend from Henderson. Tony and his family moved to Mineola in the 7th grade. I traveled to Henderson and Pine Hill often and Rudy would show up. We all had a great time in the woods in Pine Hill hunting squirrels. Rudy always had a smile on his face and was fun to hang out with. I sure miss those days. I appreciate knowing him. If I'd have known about his death, I would have surely attended the services.
