“ I remember his first day of school! Shy, Rosetta cheeks, much like his sister Lorie. He grew into a good friend of my brothers, Tommy Holman. Russell was in and out a few times. He is I am sure grown into a fun loving young Christian man. Had the best manners. Was an all Texan young man. A true sport in every sense of the word. Russell you have earned your place in Heaven, go rest high on that mountain! We will always love you and think of you with love. We will see you soon. Love The Holman and The Chapman Family
