“ I am just over whelmed at the news that this wonderful person has passed away. I worked as a courier for the Russell's for a few years. Mr. Russell was always a kind, fair and generous man. Condolences to Becky, his wife. I know he will be truly missed.

“ Russell touched my life as a college student at home in Houston for the summer and needing a job in the mid-1980's. Though it's been a long time since I worked for him and Becky as an Executive Courier, I can definitely echo the words that were written in his obituary about him living with a passion and intensity for Christ and for all he set his hand to do. He will be greatly missed. I'm praying the Lord's comfort for the Russell family. – Matt Spann
