“ He was my dad and I can remember the 1st time he took me fishing an hunting it was an amazing an unforgettable experience for me. I also remember all the times he corrected me in wrong to to right, and look back an see how much he really was protecting me an helping me to grow up. So i can say in his life their could have surely have never been a more outstanding, and loving father as he was so thank you dad I'll love you forever an always!
