“ Mrs. Ruth was a joy to be around. We did "Red Hat" together and had so much fun. Always seemed to love our outings and fellowship.

“ Mrs Ruth was so special to me. She taught me how to quilt and how to correct my giblets gravy. We shucked corn together and she shared stories of her childhood. She loved to eat at Hushpuppies. I will miss her greatly but I know she's in Heaven singing with the angels, The Old Rugged Cross. My condolences to all her family.

“ I first met “Miss Ruth” when she walked through the Bonita Methodist doors with Garry & Karen. Her smile lit up the room. She was always eager to join each activity or event when any of us gathered. Without even knowing it, Miss Ruth encouraged everyone around her to sit a little taller, slow down a little, and enjoy life a little more. When I think of Miss Ruth I will always remember her sweet smile and her pearls. Thoughts of her will forever bring a smile.
