“ Sally lived across the alley from us. We played together all the time. She was a super smart student in school. And we loved our bubble gum. She could blow the biggest bubbles. Wonder if her children knew her talents with gum.lol I'm so sorry to hear of her passing, but also glad she is not suffering any more. May she Rest in Peace. God Bless her and family.

“ Lewis Family--it saddens me to know that Sally is no longer with us. She was a special lady, friend, and cousin. She was missed when she had to leave Facebook and now her knowledge, insight, and expertise can never be shared. With her faith, we all know she is at rest now and will be welcomed with open arms at her final destination.

Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with her soul and with your family.

My deepest sympathies--Marj Bogart Nickell

While I did not have the pleasure of knowing Sally personally I know from her daughter Linda that she was a loving mother and full of life. She had to be a fantastic example to her children to have a daughter as wonderful as Linda who I am so lucky to call my friend. My prayers are with you in this time of sorrow but we know she is now in the arms of our savior. June cullen
