“ Jessie Earl, Dee, Mark, Connie and family,
I am thinking of you all at this time. Please remember Psalm 34:18;
which tells us, "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit."
My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this time.

“ *Jessie, Mark, Dee, Connie;
Sorry to hear of your loved one's death. We were neighbors on Letourneau Dr. in Lgv. and our sweetest memories are of you kids growing up and playing there at your house and ours. Your mom was a wonderful example of what a mom should be.*

Dee, I'll never forget you, Mark, and Eric going to Shreveport to see some rock band and all of you coming home with a headache.

I know you all have sweet memories to think on and may God bless each of you during this time..

“ My Nana taught me lots of things, living with her for so long she became more than just a grandmother. Every morning she woke me up singing "Good Morning, Good morning!", and on days where I wasn't so happy to get up she'd be singing "just put one foot in front of the other!". Funny because I too always sing to the kids if I am up before them. I remember how hilarious she was she one time had churches chicken but threw an apron on and had thrown flour all over her face and was trying to pass it as homemade. She had such a light about her. I know i got my love of reading from her, trips to the library for largr print love stories. I miss her. I always tell people I learned to be a wife from watching my Nana, my husband said I was taught well. I really wish some things were different. I love her and I know she is with the Lord.

“ I remember many good times, laughs and Dixie the dog. The Dixon s lived across the street many years. She was a wonderful sweet lady.

My mom remembers going to the grocery store with her and her being on the other aisle. yelling. "mommy were are you. "
