“ To the friends and family of Sandy and most importantly to my best friend and family Michele and Donnie, I am truly sorry for your families loss and I know there are no words that can describe the pain that you all are going through right now but just know that she is in peace and no longer in pain. I will miss my talks with her that I had when she stayed with Michele and Donnie and I know she loved her Alan. Michele you already know I'm here for you guys for whatever it is you may need and thank you Sandy for having such an amazing daughter that I get to not only call my family but also my friend. Please watch over all your family and let them know everything is gonna be ok!! Love, Jen Rastelli

“ Sandy gave birth and raised a wonderful daughter that is now my best friend and wife. My heart goes out to Alan, who shares the same love and admiration for his precious the way I do about mine. I can only imagine the pain he is in right now. We love Sandy, and you Alan, and we only wish that you lean on us for support in your time of need. We have your back in whatever you may need. Watch over us Sandy, and i hope we make you proud.
