“ I'll always remember "Miss King" as one of my favorite teachers. What a special soul. She married another of my favorite teachers, who was also my favorite coach! Condolences and much sympathy to the family of this very special lady.

Sadly, I'm just finding out about Sandra King Watt's passing. I suspected something was amiss when I did not receive Jerry and Sandra's usual Christmas Greetings in exchange to my own to them. I've not ever met either in person but over the last several years they became very dear to me as we shared a love of Tatum, TX (my maternal family roots) and a passion for ancestry research. I'm sending my sincerest condolences to Jerry and the entire family. May her memory always be a blessing.
