“ Dear Kevin, Tori and Phillip,I was so shocked to learn of Sara's passing, and I am so sorry! I feel as if I knew her from her wonderful Christmas letters and cards! What a lovely, loving and creative woman she was! I know there will be a huge hole left in your life, but I'm just as sure that there are lots of wonderful memories, and I hope these will sustain and uplift you all. I'm thinking of you in your sorrow. Love, Vivian

“ Kevin and Family:Aunt Kitty just told me about Sara. I am very sorry to hear of your loss. I wish I had gotten to know her, but I am sure she was a wonderful wife and mother.God bless you all in this sad time. Its always hard loosing someone we love, but we should find comfort that Sara is not suffering anymore and is resting peacefully with God.Love Vanessa

“ Kevin, Tori and Phillip - My heart literally hurts for you for the loss of Sara. I just read of this in the online paper. Sara was a most dear friend to me. She could always brighten my day! I am not physically able to make it to the service. Just know you and the kids are in my prayers for strength and peace. We know where Sara is - Heaven has just gained an angel. Love you all, Debbie Shirley
