“ God puts people in our lives for a purpose. I truly believe that Scotty was placed in mine. He and I have had many conversation in his office and the phone. He loved his family and told many stories about them. I remember he once told me not to worry... so when I start to worry, i can hear his voice, and I try to think of something else. He was me and my husbands banker and it's going to be hard to replace him...
I know Scotty is in heaven. He and my husband HB Armstrong Jr. are catching up.
I am grateful that I can call Scotty my friend. There are no word to express how much I'm going to miss him. I will continue to pray for the family to have strength and comfort through this time.
