“ I may be writing for the second time. If I have already done you can discard this. I just want the family to know how much I love Aunt Faye. I married into this family 57 years ago and I was accepted from the start. I think God that he PUT me in their family. Aunt Faye has always been special to me and I know she was special to Kenny. I can just hear her now say Kenny Wayne. She is only one that called him that. She was the last of that generation and we all have some special memories and times together. Until we see you again all our love Becky. Praying for your kids and their families as I know it will be hard for them. The peace we have is knowing you are with family and friends

“ Truly, my Aunt Faye showed what the hands and feet of Christ looks like when she was there to help her brother, S.G.Miley and his family in the process of their having to say "Good bye - for Now!" to their hero who had a servant's heart just like Faye! She was "Lovingkindness" in action, whose hands knew how to make an out of this world chocolate pie and make you feel loved and cared about. She indeed will be missed by all...but joined by many family members who are welcoming Faye to her eternal Home - that God has been busy making for her!

To Lois, Ricky, and Trudy - #5 "Honor your Mother - indeed you consistently demonstrated! Faithful and true are you!
