“ Shannon was maybe 5or6 yrs old. I was visiting my sister and Shannon and Chris got up early making all kinds of noise. I tell them let's go play a game in the basement. I tied Shannon and Chris up and taped their mouth shut and went back up stairs to sleep. Their dad came down stairs asking what the noise was in basement I say I don't know. Lol he Gos down to find Shannon and Chris tied up. Shannon told everyone she had a crazy aunt tree. But I know she loved me and I loved her. She will be missed. R. I. P. Shannon

“ I am Shannon's grandma. She was the sweetest child. She would get in trouble with talking back and spent a lot of time on a stool in my kitchen. In fact after her grandpa passed away I gave her the stool. Oh how I would love to see that talkative little girl again. I have been so proud of her. She worked so hard at her education. I never got to meet Jared but he must be a wonderful young man because Shannon was picky about the guys she dated. My heart goes out to you Jared. I like to think she is in heaven with our Punkin now. Love, Grandma Pat

“ I had the honor and privilege of working closely with Shannon for the last 8 months. We were the only two therapists down this far south and we shared many Lufkin and Nacogdoches pts together. We spoke or saw each other most work days and she was such an amazing person, co worker and friend! I still cannot believe she is gone. She will forever live on in my heart as one of the best OT's I have ever known. She loved her pts and worked so hard for them! I never had to wonder what Shannon was thinking or feeling. She always spoke the truth and from the heart!! LOL! I know for a long time to come I will still find myself looking for her as I pull up at a pt's house, as we would many times be there at the same time and cross paths! My thoughts and prayers are with all her family. She spoke often about her husband and kids and she loved those kids like her own! I will miss you Shannon!!❤️
