“ God will always make a path when we feel too troubled to move forward. Bless your family and know that Shari was a very good friend and will be missed. Just a note, she had stopped to speak to Keith on Monday this week to ask if we were ok since his mothers passing last month. Shari was like that, always asking how others were doing and putting others first. God be with you.

“ *God bless your family as you take this journey. No words can ease the pain, but know that your loved and shari was as wanderful person in the years she delivered our mail. she always had a smile on her face. Know that our Heavenly Father will carry you on the days that are long and suffering in her absense. but know that they will rejoice in the Lord as they enter into his kingdom, for they will be with thier Father again, they were called home too soon. Our Lord has laid the temple of an angel down. Although she will be missed dearly, Praise his Holy Name, for they are with our creator for ever more. I pray in His Holy name that you will find peace and comfort on your journey.
