“ I really got to know Sharon during a mission trip at Southside Baptist church many years ago. We taught the VBS storytime together and had so much fun together. Her love of kids and Jesus was so evident. We even got lost one time driving over there... good times.

My niece and nephew were her students and she would always ask about them for years to come. Her kindness and compassion just shined through with her genuine love of people.

One VBS she asked my daughter to run upstairs and get something because she had young legs. From that day, that was all she called her. ... Young Legs. "Good Morning, Young Legs" "Can you do this, Young Legs"

Matt was their electrician for years and he loved to just go by and visit with them.

She was a friend and will be missed. So sorry for your loss and praying for your family.

“ I first met Sharon and families in Henderson Texas as a college student selling books door to door in the summer of 1983 (yes nearly 40 years ago) and The Moore, especially Sharon was instrumental in welcoming a then stranger (Malaysian Chinese). Offered to allow to stay for the summer and became our Texas host parents and families.

The Moore family came to our wedding in Norman Oklahoma in May 1986. Howard (host parent) gave my wife Irene away to be married during the wedding, as Irene's father was not present. Tammy sang and of course Sharon was there throughout.

After nearly 25 years, we reconnected via facebook and we took all of our 3 children to spend Christmas and new year in late Dec 2009 in Henderson Texas at their home with unforgettable memories.

My wife and I went back again in 2013 where the two pictures now in Tribute Wall. Sharon and also Howard will be greatly missed. David Tee & Irene Tan (with our 3 children Daniel, Benjamin and Jacquelin Tee)

“ I will always remember the wonderful times at the farm when all the Keelings would arrive from east Texas. What a special time down at granny and grandad 's picnic grounds, Sharon was such a special part of the family reunions. Always remember wonderful times when we would come to Mt. Enterprise to Aunt Hazel and Uncle AL'S. Sharon would always be there to help Aunt Hazel in the kitchen and visit with all of us. Sharon Keeling was a wonderful Christian lady! God bless to Ricky, Sherri and all the family.
