“ Sharon was my oldest sister and a woman of great generosity, compassion, love, and humor. I always saw her as another "mom" who was there for me when I needed someone to talk to. She encouraged me to continue college, eased bad times during high school relationships, and helped to expand my self image. She was a woman of great resiliency, handling her own problems without complaint. Sharon gave willingly to others in need. She was a role model to me of someone who could handle anything that came her way. I know of noone who met her that didn't love her. She will be greatly missed but remembered with love and gratitude for being such a wonderful person. She was an "angel" while on earth and is now an "angel" in heaven. I will miss you, Sharon. Be at peace. Your loving sister, Shar

“ Sharon was always a tremendously hard worker. She basically raised her 3 children alone. It was nothing to see her under a car repairing something, digging up the front yard because a pipe broke or roofing the house. She wasn't afraid to tackle any thing life handed her. She was a wonderful best friend and daughter to our mother. I regret the fact we didn't spend a lot of time together but we both had families and responsibilities. I will miss her forever - Sandy -
