“ Kirby, I was so sorry to hear of Sherry's passing. I am sorry most of all that you lost your mother. I know in the coming days, you will find she's not gone forever. She will be there in small quiet places, in dreams, & when you least expect it. I hope you can find comfort in knowing how fiercely she loved her family. She told me once your children gave her a new life. She touched so many of our lives with her love & bright smile. She had the rare ability to make me feel when I saw her that seeing me was the best part of her day. I know I'm not alone in feeling that. I used to tease her when we were in nursing school that wherever we went, someone was going to know her. I got used to hearing, "Hi Sherry!" almost everywhere. What a great legacy, to have loved & been loved by so many.

“ Sherry and I were neighbors when our children were young. She was a precious friend. There will be an empty place in this world without her sunshiny smile and outlook on life. I will miss you my sweet friend. I am praying for God's comfort for Kirby and family and her best friends, Becky, Celeste and Liz.
