“ You were more than my friend Sheryl. You were like a mother to me. I could come and talk to you whenever I needed advice or just company. You were there for me my whole adult life through the good times and the bad. You were there for the births of my children and watched them grow up. The only thing you didn't teach me was how to live without you. I already miss you so much. I will never forget you and I promise not to only cry when I think about you. You were a joy and a blessing in my life. Thank you for being my friend and for being my second Mom. I'll love you forever

You taught me how to survive and that I will for until God calls me home, until then, I guess I still have work to do here on earth. I can't wait to hold you in arms again. I love you so much and miss you so much. Rest easy my sweetheart. I love you
