“ I met Ms. Shirley several years ago at the annual Sacred Harp Singing at Pine Grove Cemetery. What I gathered from those brief talks through the years is that she was a strong, loving, and fun person. I wish I had known her better. Blessings to the family.

“ Shirley and I worked together at the HDN back in the 80's. At first she was a little 'scary' but I learned 'I need not be afraid', she was a pussy-cat when you go to know her. I grew to love Shirley, what a special lady. I know all of you will miss her, but you will, in days, weeks, years to come....keep her spirit alive with all the wonderful memories.

There were many things to laugh about and many fond memories from my days at the paper, but one of the most horrifying was when I jumped in my car to leave and backed into her beautiful, big, red car. I THINK it was a Lincoln, but am not for sure. I went back inside, white as a sheet, I'm sure.....to confess. There was no damage, maybe a scuff....and as always, with class, she put me at ease and blew it off.

My thoughts and prayers are will all of you.

“ Cody, Shauna, & Melinda,
You know words cannot express my sorrow...she was my mother too in a lot of ways. I admired her so much and loved her dearly. She was always good to me and treated me like one of her own. She tried to make "young ladies" out of us, remember? Maybe it worked, you all turned out to be wonderful people and my lifelong friends. I love you from the bottom of my heart.
