“ Dearest Billie, Freddy, Nita and Paula

Norman and I just heard about Stella's death. Please know our hearts and prayers are with you. Even though we have been so neglectful in keeping our lives intertwined, your whole family has been such a blessing and treasure in our lives. There is not one unkind word or deed that can ever be remembered having come from any of you. Always loving kindness through good times and bad. We would love to hear from each of you and have your addresses as well as any contact numbers you would be willing to share. Personally, we would love to tie that kinship knot tighter and have memories we can all share together through the rest of our lives.
