“ Help me Lord put into words how much I'm going to miss my brother. As juveniles in the 60s, we explored the countryside daily. Always together, sharing the joy of being brothers. As adults, you have to have someone to share heartbreak, pain, personal problems, as well as the joy. Steve left this Earth to be with Jesus, and my heart is broken, but I know he will share my heartbreak and pain until I leave to be with him. I love you brother.

“ I met Steve about 17 years ago when he called me up a booked a fishing trip with me. Always had a fun time with him and then he introduced his brothers to me that I still take fishing. Always have a great time with them too. Now Steve is up there fishing in heaven and catching way more fish than I could ever take him too. RIP my friend, I'll always remember the good times we had together. Stan Kuhn
