

Mrs. Teresa Wells

July 31, 1962 - July 15, 2025

Teresa Jones Wells left us suddenly on July 15, 2025 in Carthage, Texas. Teresa was born on July 31, 1962 in Houston, Texas to Gerald and Jessie Jones. Teresa graduated from Mount Carmel High School in 1981. She worked as a teacher/coach at South Shaver Baptist School & caregiver at Cathy's Candyland Daycare.

Teresa is preceded in death by her father Gerald Jones and her sister Joyce Gillum. She is survived by her mother Jessie Jones, her husband Sam Houston Wells of 43 years, her 4 children, Samantha King and her husband Bobby of Needville, Texas, Travis Wells and his wife Ashley of Henderson, Texas, Sunny Stryk and her husband Travis of Linden, Texas, Tessa Barker and her husband Brad of Carthage, Texas, her younger brother Carlton Jones and his wife Tina of Houston, Texas. She was grandmother "MaMa T" to: Keely, Braelon, Aaron, Ashton, Deason, Adam, Kodi, Kaiden, Abigail, Skyler, Levi, Kaci, Morgan, Kolten, Annabelle, Reagan and Whitney.

Sam met his love, Teresa, at the age of 9. They went through their school years as acquaintances and later friends. On Teresa's graduation day, Sam showed up with a necklace for her. From that day forward their relationship bloomed, and Sam proposed to Teresa that same summer. Three months later they married on October 3, 1981 and started their beautiful marriage and family.

Teresa held a lot of titles in her 62 years on earth: daughter, sister, aunt, wife, mother, grandmother but her most important role in life always will be a child of God, loved and forgiven by our Savior Jesus Christ.

I am so sorry for your loss. Teresa was a large part of my girls lives. They all learn to love softball, volleyball and basketball. I treasure the time we had at the school together.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the entire family during this incredibly heartbreaking time.
It’s been years since I last spoke with Mrs. Wells, but she played a major role in my life during my South Shaver years. She was not only my teacher and coach, but also a second mom to me. I have nothing but amazing memories of her—she truly made a lasting impact on my life.

“ We spent years together as young kids and teens riding motorcycles, jumping on trampolines, lying under the stars, camping, and swimming. Those were wonderful foundation years spent loving life, friendship, and family time. We didn’t see each other during our adult years, but I know my friendship and time together in our early years helped shape who we became as adults. She was a loving woman. Mh heart goes out to Sam, her children and grandchildren. Prayers for all of her family.
