Wonderful Memories, I went to school with Thelma and we had PE together, every time we talked she would remind me of the times we played basketball together and she had to guard me and both of us had scratches since we played like it was a real game and of course we would laugh. The last time I saw her she reminded me of our games. She was a very HAPPY, Sweet person and she loved the Lord as much as anyone could. “ So sorry for the loss of this precious lady. I've known Mrs. Thelma for along time and my son and daughter in law lived beside her and she would always talk to me and my gran daughter Lillie about feeding the horse behind her house, and then one day she saw us playing in the back yard and she said Paula you watch that baby girl, cause there's a big cat back in them woods and I told her I sure would Mrs Thelma, and she always loved giving Lillie pretty pink flowers 🌸 off her tree. She was such a dear sweet soul who will dearly be missed 🙏❤️🙏
