Mr. Wood passed away November 23, 2021, at UT Health in Henderson. He was born January 2, 1957 in Henderson to the late J.B. and Maudie Wood. He attended Gaston schools, and was a member of Middle Cross Baptist Church. Thomas never met a stranger - he loved everyone he met and they loved him back. His favorite thing was to go to church and hear God's Word. He loved music and also loved to sing, until his health declined, then his church would sing to him. He loved his second family at Henderson Health and Rehab for the loving care they gave him for many years. UT Health Henderson also has taken care of him and their care is greatly appreciated.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brothers, John Wood, William Wood, and Terry Wood, and sister, Shirley Wood; and brother-in-law, Steven Temple.

Survivors include: brother, Leon Wood, Sr., sisters, Kay Rogers and husband John, Carolyn Temple, and Darlene Whitlock.

Pallbearers are Johnathan Rogers, Todd Chastain, Brayden Chastain, Johnny Rogers, and Kevin Temple.

“ To Carolyn Kay Darlene & Leon...he is already missed tremendously, but we know he is singing and dancing with the angels now. I will miss the way he said Good morning to me, smiling with his eyes, giving me a high five, thumbs up & singing “One Day At A Time” during OUR morning routine these last few years. But what I will cherish the most is...him dressed in his Sunday Best with his black cowboy boots & cowboy hat on, rolling down the hallway or sitting in the dining room & he would sing out “you get a line & I’ll get a pole” waiting on us to reply “honey, baby mine” just to make us smile. He meant the world to us & we were blessed to care for him & honored all of you shared him with us for so many years. You’ve all become family & we love you all, we grieve with you for his loss, but most of all we rejoice with you knowing we’ll see him again. We will have comfort in knowing he’ll be there waiting & ready to once more to use his Heavenly voice to sing & wait for our reply. May GOD bless all of you & comfort you in your time of need.
