“ Dear Leesa, family and friends -Eventhough I did not know Mike, I am priviledged to know Leesa. I can only imagine he was as warm and as loving as she is. A loss of such a great person is truely hard on those of us left behind... but we are comforted by knowing he is in a better place. With deepest sympathy...~Donna Wise

“ Dear Leesa and family, I'm so sorry for your loss of Mike. My friendship with Mike stretches back nearly forty years. From the day we met in sixth grade on the playground at Hill School to more recent years and communications by email, Mike always had the same intelligent sense of humor and sharp wit. He made me laugh. I will remember and miss that most of all. He was a dear friend to me and there will always be a special place in my heart for him. Mark Murphy

“ I was so sad to hear the news of Mike (Timothy's) passing. Amazing how many people touch our lives in one stage and the pleasant memories remain long after we lose communication. I hope the warm thoughts and expressions of sympathy will ease the family's grief in this time of loss.best regards,Patti
