“ It's been a while since I've been here, but I just want it to be known that Tomas, Nico, and Blake were three of my best friends ever. Not a day goes by that I don't miss them and think on the brotherhood we shared.

Love y'all forever,

-Zach

“ As my son, Zachary being best friends with all the boys, Tomas & Blake since 1st grade then later Nico in High School, it still seems "surreal" and impossible that earthly bodies have left this earth. They did leave in their presence a wonderful feeling on love & joy. I can't stress enough how "good" these boys were. Well mannered, considered and determined that they WOULD graduate. I remember a time when Tomas had to walk 2 miles to get to school. I know their lil sister, Asierae is going to be lost, because those two brothers were more of a "rock & staff" for her. Blake was a kind, unassuming person who never had a bad thing to say about anybody. I'm glad my son was able to be a part of their lives, as they will continue to be with us, if only now...in our hearts.

“ I came along right after the crash, I am soo sorry for the loss of these young men. I know that God called them home for their time on earth was done, but that doesn't begin to extinguish the feeling of loss and despair that is felt. I pray for God's comfort to all the families and friends of these prescious souls and may your memories of them bring you peace and joy. In prayer, In Christ.

“ My heart breaks for you at the loss of your precious boys. While I didn't know Nico, I spent lots of band bus trips sitting not too far from that wonderful, sweet, caring young tuba player, Tomas. Always willing to help...always a ready smile on his lips and such a good tuba player. I loved to watch him march carrying that great big horn so proudly...an all around sweet young man. We saw him at the Syrup Festival last November and he was SO proud of his baby boy. We are all sadden by the loss of these special young men. I am praying that God surrounds you in comfort and love through the coming years as you go forward. Tomas, Nico and Blake will be remembered with love and greatly missed by so many. We are so sorry for your losses. We are praying for your family.
