“ Tom & Ryland, Tom - I am so very sorry for your loss, your mother was a wonderful lady - I always loved talking with her and had a great chat with her a couple months ago as she was planning on doing a little cooking for you and your boys. I remeber her talking with me after I got married and i told her that it was in Bentonville, Arkansas and she said, " Well now I can't believe thatmy name is in that same marriage book in Bentonville as well, small world" - A great cook, domino player - salt of the earth lady!!! A great lady will be missed - you are a lucky to have her on your side to watch you for years to come. Love and sweet memories to you and your family. Traci Brown

“ Tom & Ryland,Mimi will truly be missed. Tom you were so bless to have such a loving mom. She made you what you are today. She was a caregiver to all. It was so great to see her get all giddy when we asked her to make her famous pecan pies. Funny how she knew that she had to hide them in the cabinets so the kids and dogs would not get them first. The bacon eggs and coffee will sure be missed in the mornings. Well at least GOD gave us one very good ANGEL to watch over our families.

“ Tommye was both my aunt and my cousin, but she was always my best friend! She allowed me to climb trees, and taught me to fish, to play Solitaire, and many, many other things. She let me read all her Perry Mason books--as a result, I wanted to be an attorney; I never followed that dream, but her son , Tom did! Tommye always inspired me to be free and to dream. And every time I visited her, she sent me home with a gift-- berries, pecans, peas, -- but a gift. And, she made the best chocolate pies I have ever eaten! I loved you, Tommye! I'll miss you, but I'll never forget you! All my love to you and your family, Gail Andrews Clark
