“ When I spoke with you a few days after your recent birthday I felt like that would be the last time we talked--it was--no matter as we will meet again some day--count on it. You were the sweetest man I ever knew. Tracy was "the real deal" and his word was his bond. Knowing you made me a better person. I will try to stay close to Nancy, Kathy and Bobby. Thank you for being in my life. I love you--rest now and sleep forever with God and His Angels.

“ I remember going up on weekends and waking up to the smell of bacon cooking, gathering pecans with the kids, riding down to the creek, and hanging out on the back porch. He always made us feel welcome. He was a blessing in our lives. My kids could not have asked for a better grandfather.

“ "Mr. Williams" will always have a place in my memories and in my heart. I first worked for him when I was 19 yrs old at Bayshore Service Center and again at 29 at South Houston Complex. He was one of the special individuals at HL&P that enabled my start down a great career path and I will always be grateful. I can still picture him sitting in the office in the chair next to "Ms. Burma's" desk smoking a cigarette, exchanging stories, taking care of business... Fun times, good friends, great memories. Peace to Tracy and his family -- Borrowing his words, they are all "good people."

“ Tracy was my supervisor at Houston Lighting & Power. I was an apprentice lineman when Tracy was assigned to the Bayshore Service Center in Seabrook, Texas. The apprentice process was challenging for me, and there were times when I considered giving it up. Tracy talked to me on several occasions about my concerns, both in his office and on the dock. He took the time to counsel and advise when most folks in his position would have simply passed it off. Tracy told me once, "being a lineman is not for everyone and it may not be for you either; but you owe it to yourself to make sure that it is your decision and not one someone is forcing on you. Succeeding in this line of work comes sooner and easier to some than others. You may be in the others category." Well, he was right and his words helped me to stay with it. Mr. Williams was a mentor and a fine man; I am a better person for knowing him. My sympathy to the family.
