

Mr. Travis Neil Bane

August 9, 1939 - September 23, 2015

Travis Neil Bane passed away in the early morning hours of Wednesday, Sept. 23, 2015, at the University of Mississippi Medical Center. He was born in Nacogdoches, Texas, on Aug. 9, 1939, the only child of Elva and Opal Bane. He graduated from Nacogdoches High School, where he played multiple sports. He graduated from SFA with a major in business. In 1959, he married Mary Linda Hamilton, his high school sweetheart. Ending his career in the GM's finance department, Neil retired from GMAC in Brandon, Miss., after 30 years of service. Here, he continued his passion for fishing and became a member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church where Neil served faithfully as an usher. Neil and Linda enjoyed life at Buckingham subdivision where Neil became known as the "mayor of Buckingham," and served each year as the grand marshal of the Fourth of July parade. He will be greatly missed by his family, friends and neighbors.

Neil was preceded in death by his parents; and his beloved daughter, "Becky" Bane. Survivors include his wife and two sons, Greg, who lives in Shreveport, La., with wife, Alison, and children, Avery and Andrew; and Gary, who lives in Woodstock, Ga., with wife, Lori, and children, Brandon, Braden and Madison.

We remembered Neil by funeral at St. Mark's UMC at 2 p.m. Saturday, September 26, 2015. Burial will be in Concord Cemetery in Concord, Texas, near Mt. Enterprise, at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 3, 2015 under the direction of Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations be made to St. Mark's UMC Music Ministry.
