“ So sorry for your loss. Vergil will forever be a part of my fondest childhood memories, those classic Sunday lunches at "Momma Hamptons". Where the food was always perfect and the hospitality genuine. It was the afternoon wrestling bouts between Kent and me, instigated by George Everett and cheered on by Vergil, that I will remember for life. Since I was younger, he would give me tips on how to beat Kent, and usually they worked. Growing up with such real and honest people made my childhood special and the unity of our little community unbreakable.
