“ May the Lord bless and keep the family of this quiet giant of a man. There are few greater examples of commitment, integrity and a steadfast approach to living life each day with joy and purpose than dear Victor. He is woven into the fabric of the Mills family in ways that few can fully understand. He was and is a family member and a legacy to us all. I have known him for over 40 years and he has been a part of many a Mills boys upbringing. He had a near spiritual commitment to the land, cattle and the precious place we call the country. It is a place set in our hearts so deeply that words will not do justice. The effort over the decades by Victor and family are a gift to generations past, present and future. Honor to you Victor. For that we are eternally grateful. My deepest sympathy to his family one and all. Ben Mills and family.
